

Childhood Treasure Essay

Assignment: Look in your drawers or on the shelves of your room for a special childhood treasure. Perhaps you have a special box for items that are special to you. Decide which treasure you want to write about. Treasures can be new or old, expensive or cheap, common or rare, quirky or classy. Remember, treasures are sometimes only a treasure to the one that holds it.

Assignments Specifications:

*1 page minimum

*Typed, double spaced, times new roman font, size 12, 1 inch margins on all sides

*Hard copy brought to class on the due date and must be submitted to turnitin.com

*Talk about these 4 things within your essay: How you got the treasure, what the treasure looks like (use a lot of details), why it is considered a treasure to you, and where the treasure is kept/where it is now.

*Will be graded according to the 6 traits of writing

Due _____