

History 8
Lesson Plans
Week of January 31 – February 4, 2011

OVERVIEW:

This week we will look at precedents set by the first administration of our country's new government. The focus will be on how much our country has changed in its more than 200 years of operation. The grading period starts fresh this week for the new semester.

MONDAY:

Chapter 9 Section 1 "Establishment of the New Government"
In class: discuss the organization of the new government
Homework: research answers to Workbook p. 47

TUESDAY:

Chapter 9 Section 2 "Foreign Threats and Neutrality"
In class: discuss American relations with Spain and France
Homework: finish reading Sections 1-2, pp. 170-179

WEDNESDAY:

Discuss Precedents set by Washington's administration, workbook p. 46
And answers to homework – workbook p. 47

THURSDAY:

Reading Quiz on Sections 1-2, Chapter 9
Discuss transition between Washington and Adams' presidencies
Homework: Read Sections 3-4, pp. 179-190

FRIDAY:

Discuss differences between the early American presidencies and today.
Chapter Review assignment in class

 EXTRA CREDIT OPTION

Throughout the next semester, students can always receive extra credit (one point per question answered) for completing Section Review questions not assigned in class. For chapter 9, no Section Review questions have been assigned, so there is a possibility of 20 Extra Credit points.